...Our Man About Town...

D. W. Elliott of Roswell, was in Clovis this week on business.

H. C. Miller and family, formerly of this place but more recently of Crowell, Texas, came in this week and will reside here in the future.

Mr. O. V. Morrison received a message Thursday announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Marguerite Dogget of Frankfort, Indiana.

I treat all diseases and disorders of women and attend confinement cases.

Dr. H. R. Gibson.

Mrs. R. E. Rowells arrived this week from Oklahoma to join her husband, Judge R. E. Rowells.

For Sale—a 9 foot ventilator in good condition—Cheap.

FOR RENT—2 large furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Plastered house. Phone 256, after 6 p. m.

Lost—Thursday between 5 and 6 p. m. in post office, black leather pocket book. Liberal reward for return to this office.

I can fix your clock for $1.00. Geo. T. Wilson, Expert Repairer Rear Clovis National Bank. Phone 41 t-f.

Bert Curless, painting, papering, kalsomining. Phone 254. 4-t

If the young men who went into my building on Pile street Tuesday afternoon and removed therefrom 3 electric light globes and wire will return same to me no questions will be asked. I know who you are, you were seen taking them.

Miss Ella Curren.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Elmore and daughter, Miss Ovella, left Wednesday for Roswell to spend the winter. They accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Savage and little daughter, Vella Maye, who had been visiting them for several days.

Dr. Edwards, of Roswell, will locate in Clovis, having rented the Swartz property on South Main Street. He will open up his office to the public about January 1st.

Among the prominent Clovisites who are suffering with pneumonia are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris, Mr. Singer and the young son of Mr. Chalfant. It would be easier to name the well people than to name those who are incapacitated by lagrippe.

Electric Irons, heater and cooking vessels.

Barry Hardware Co.

Bert Curless and W. A. Havenner were in Portales Thursday where they assisted in the institution of the Knights of Pythias lodge.

Mark Spears, who has been visiting his parents for several weeks, having been called here upon the sickness of his father, left Tuesday for his home in California.

J. F. Smithson, the real estate dealer, of Grady, paid the News office a visit the middle of the week. He reports everything in fine shape and land business quite active around Grady.

LOST: A gold watch hunting case, Illinois works; Santa Fe fob attached. Finder will return to this office, a liberal reward will be paid or return to A. E. Siegner, owner.

I examine patients free. The more difficult and complicated the case the more interesting to me. There is not a disease described in a medical or surgical text book that I haven't studied.

Dr. H. R. Gibson.

Mrs. C. I. Teague, mother of Mrs. W. E. Copeland, returned home the latter part of last week from points in Arkansas, where she has been visiting relatives for the past two months.

Borr—To Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Broyles Wednesday morning, an eight pound baby boy.

The Woman's Club will give a New Year's reception at the home of Mrs. Pattie Holland. A very pleasant occasion is anticipated.

Mrs. Morris, mother of Mrs. Burns Smith and Mrs. W. H. Doughton, left Tuesday for her home in Holton, Kansas, after several months visit in Clovis.

When down town shopping stop at Parish Candy Kitchen for your luncheon.

J. H. Shepard and family spent the first of the week visiting with relatives at Cansey.

Messrs. C. L. Bass and John Riley, of Cansey 35 miles southeast of Portales, came up the first of the week to buy some Hereford and Durham heifers from the Farwell Cattle Company through J. H. Shepard.

I charge fifteen dollars for attending confinement cases in Clovis, no charges for other calls and I charge fifty cents per mile extra where I go to the country. I have taken this work in five schools, three Osteopathic and two Medical, under fifteen different instructors, more than half of them are specialists in this line of work. I believe I know what to do in these cases and what not to do.

Dr. H. R. Gibson.
